Third Sunday of Lent

Jesus' gospel message clearly exposes the fallacy that evil befalls sinners. It is a common idea that when we sin God punishes us proportionally. As a result, the ancient people thought the Galileans who had been killed and desecrated deserved it, because they had sinned. That is not how God works; for more often than not, it is our sins which are the cause of disastrous repercussions. It is the principle of cause and effect. Jesus is explaining that all of us fall short of deserving salvation and the kingdom of God, so we all need to repent to understand the truth of sin and grace. By repenting, we see our lack due to sin, and for the sake of God promote His true goodness in our lives.

From the story of Exodus, God explains to Moses who He is by stating His name as Yahweh, which means: "I am who am", or I the creating creator, or I the existing source of existence. Hebrew is a simple language and one word or name has many meanings; however, we still understand that God's name explains who He is. God is the continuing source of the universe's existence.

With this in mind, Jesus proposes a question to us through the parable of the fig tree: After providing us with so many second chances to produce His goodness, would it be prudent of God to no longer sustain our existence?

Holy Family bilingual Rosary Prayer group

We continue to meet on Tuesdays at 7 pm in the church chapel to pray the Rosary. On the first Tuesday, we meet promptly at 6:30 so that we can join Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at 7pm in the church. All are welcome. Bienvenidos.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

We are in need of EM of Holy Communion for all masses. If you are interested in this meaningful ministry, please contact the Parish Office or Deacon John and Julie Gabbard for more information.

Tercer Domingo de Cuaresma

El mensaje que Jesús nos comunica en el Evangelio descubre claramente la falsedad de que cosas malas les suceden a pecadores. Es una idea común que cuando pecamos Dios nos castiga proporcionalmente; por esto los pueblos antiguos pensaban que los Galileos habían sido matados y desecrados porque se lo merecían, ya que habían pecado. Pero esto no es como funciona Dios. Más que nada, nuestros pecados causan repercusiones desastrosas. Es el principio de la relación "causa-efecto". Jesús está explicando que ninguno de nosotros merece la salvación y el reino de Dios, y todos debemos arrepentirnos para comprender la verdad del pecado y la gracia. Al arrepentirnos, vemos lo que carecemos debido al pecado y empezamos a promover la bondad de Dios en nuestras vidas.

En la lectura del Éxodo, Dios le dice a Moisés quien es El al anunciar su nombre como Yahvé, que significa "Yo-soy": yo el creador que crea, yo la fuente de la existencia. El Hebreo es una lengua sencilla y una palabra o nombre tiene varios significados, sin embargo, entendemos que el nombre de Dios explica quién es El. Dios es la fuente continua de la existencia del universo.

Con esto en mente, Jesús nos pregunta con la parábola del higüero: ¿No sería más prudente de Dios, después de darnos tantas oportunidades para producir Su bondad, ya no mantener nuestra existencia?

1st Tuesday of the Month Holy Hour
